GOODLET COMS4 ANSAH

KWAME NKRUMAH UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY, KUMASI

COLLEGE OF ART AND SOCIAL SCIENCES
FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Second Semester Examinations, 2009
ENGL.158: COMMUNICATION SKILLS

MAY, 2009 (10) TWO HOURS

CANDIDATE'S DEPT/FACULTY _____

INDEX NUMBER _____

CANDIDATES MUST LEAVE THE PAPER BEHIND AFTER THE EXAMINATION

INSTRUCTIONS: Answer ONE question from Section A in the answer booklet and then answer all questions in Section B on the scannable sheet provided.

SECTION A (20 marks)

Answer only ONE question from this section.

(1) You contracted VOLTUS ENGINEERS LTD. to install some high-tech equipment at your factory/ workshop. After a trial run, you drew the attention of some senior executives of VOLTUS to what you considered unsatisfactory and dangerous.

A week into production, there was an explosion and a fire outbreak that injured three of your staff and damaged property.

Write a comprehensive complaint and demand appropriate restitution from VOLTUS for the you consider culpable.

2 Certain unsatisfactory practices and defects at your workplace have led to an industrial accident that has injured a number of your staff and damaged equipment.

You have been asked by your CEO to investigate this accident, assess the extent of damage and recommend appropriate remedies, restitutions and sanctions.

(a) Write out your report which must include your terms of reference.
(b) Write the letter of transmittal

3. You belong to a technical/managerial task force that was formed to find ways of enhancing efficiency of your organization. Membership is drawn from different departments of the organization. As Secretary to this task force

(a) write an appropriate notice of a general meeting of this task force and,
(b) draft narrative minutes of this meeting.

GOODLET

Pcu/CASS/157-

67

SECTION B

Answer all questions in this section on the scannable sheet.

Which of the following is NOT a non-verbal communication cue?
A. posture
B. proximity
C. credibility
D. grooming

Normally, the white collar business executive does ...
A. more reading than listening
B. more listening than reading
C. more writing than listening
D. equal reading and listening

The sender of a message must transform his idea into a medium because ...
A. a medium is cheaper to use
B. a medium is faster to use
C. an idea in itself cannot be relayed
D. an idea in itself cannot be channelled

Which of the following is NOT a good tip for communicating successfully with a global audience?
A. Be clear and simple
B. Assume that if the person speaks English then he will understand what you say in English.
C. The fact the person speaks English does not mean he'll understand what you say in English
D. Don't ask questions that require a yes or no answer.

Which of the following is NOT a potential barrier to communication at the workplace?
A. ignorance of personal differences
B. resistance to change
C. credibility
D. status expectations

Which of the following is NOT an attribute of a successful communicator?
A. ability to predict response of audience
B. precision
C. credulity
D. congeniality

Which of the following does not make feedback useful?
A. being receptive to others' responses
B. encouraging frankness
C. using feedback to improve communication
D. being receptive of all possible feedback.

Point out the odd one.
A. Defining the purpose for the message
B. Analyzing the audience of the message
C. Establishing the main idea of the message
D. Selecting the medium for relaying the message

9. Which of the following is not a good question for testing the purpose of your message?
   A. Is the purpose realistic?
   B. Is this the right time?
   C. What is the probable reaction to your message?
   D. Is the purpose acceptable to your organization?

10. A written message is appropriate when .....
   A. you want to minimize the chances of distortion
   B. you require some documentation
   C. you want to encourage instantaneous interaction
   D. the message is complex.

11. In the process of communication, the sender's first activity is .....
   A. encoding the message
   B. packaging the message
   C. transmitting the message
   D. conceiving the message

12. During the delivery of his paper, Mr. Nkansah maintained eye contact with the audience. He wants to .....
   A. to establish links
   B. to exude confidence
   C. to impart his ideas
   D. to overcome stage fright.

13. Distortion as a communication problem refers to .....
   A. background noise
   B. loss of intended meaning on the recipient
   C. using indecent language when communicating
   D. using the wrong channel.

14. Which one of the following is not necessarily an advantage of the open office?
   A. It is cheaper to operate
   B. It is a check on untoward behaviour
   C. It fosters unity among staff
   D. It promotes personal interactions between workers and clientele

15. Which one of these cannot pose a significant problem in upward communication?
   A. When the educational background of the manager is far above that of his subordinates.
   B. When subordinates assume that management is too busy to pay heed to them.
   C. When they fear that they can be victimised or shunned if they complain.
   D. When they think that management consider them as daft.

16. When a company operates an open-door policy it .....
   A. makes management accessible to all members of staff
   B. holds regular meetings where salient issues are discussed.
   C. allows workers to drop their complaints into suggestion boxes
   D. gives all workers the chance to take courses in policy formulation.

48

17. Business communication is characterised by formality, brevity, deliberate lack of spontaneity
A. impartiality
B. impersonality
C. honesty
D. impertinence

18. Pick the odd one out
A. counselling interviews
B. disciplinary interviews
C. selection interviews
D. investigating interviews

19. The primary objectives of a job application letter is to ....
A. inform the organisation on how qualified you are for the job
B. to be considered for a future vacancy
C. to have your application letter on file
D. to gain an interview.

20. When a man talks to himself, ...
A. it is communication because there is an exchange of ideas.
B. it is not communication because there is only a sender
C. it is communication for the speaker uses language
D. no communication is involved since there is no external response

Anything which happens in the space between a speaker and his listener which blocks the reception of a message is called
A. dislocation
B. noise
C. stimulus
D. distortion

When communication serves to foster good relationship between people it is
A. therapeutic
B. cathartic
C. phatic
D. pragmatic

Which of the following people has credibility when he makes a medical claim?
A. An actor playing the role of a doctor
B. A well-known footballer or boxer
C. An illiterate but a very wise old man
D. A lecturer in physiology

The skill of communication used most in classroom instruction is
A. listening
B. writing
C. speaking
D. reading

When the sound of heavy machinery at a nearby worksite interferes with listening, it is ....
A. technical noise
B. distortion
C. physical noise
D. information overload

26. A researcher looking for information should necessarily have all the following skills except .
A. library skills
B. computer skills
C. interview skills
D. legal skills

27. One of the disadvantages of giving out handouts of a speech is that .....
A. it helps the audience to follow the speech
B. members of the audience may be inattentive
C. it is quite expensive and time wasting to prepare
D. mistakes cannot be corrected for the handout is a permanent record.

28. Which of these is the odd one:
A. Communication anxiety
B. Speech anxiety
C. Speech fright
D. Communication apprehension

29. Diagonal communication ...
A. is completely unacceptable because it breaches the official line of communication.
B. may be permitted under special conditions when there are time constraints or other emergencies
C. is generally a slight on the middle official who has been excluded.
D. should not be practised at all in any organisation because the official line deals adequately with all emergencies.

30. Management information systems involve ....
A. Messages passed from one manager to the other.
B. The flow of information through an organisation
C. Messages from superiors to subordinates
D. How to deal with unofficial communication at the workplace

31. There are rumours at the work place about the manager carrying the building materials of the organisation to his private worksite. This is .... Communication.
A. informal
B. downward
C. upward
D. horizontal

32. After debating a particular issue at a meeting it is put to the vote. The outcome of the vote is a
A. motion
B. resolution
C. proposal
D. communiqué

GOODLET

33. Which of the following is NOT included in a letter of authorization?
A. problem
B. purpose
C. recommendations
D. duration

34. The Executive Summary is much like the end-summary only that it appears to ...
A. be much more detailed
B. cover more than the terms of reference
C. be written by the Chairman only
D. include all documents needed for the report.

35. What is "researching" in Report writing?
A. reading about the problem at the library
B. obtaining relevant and adequate data
C. identifying the extend of the problem
D. analysing and interpreting the problem

36. Which of the following is a feature of the language of minutes writing? The use of
A. contractions
B. slang expressions
C. figurative expressions
D. reported speech

37. A formal meeting should always be preceded by a letter of
A. transmittal
B. invitation
C. procurement
D. inquiry

38. A memorandum .....
A. usually operates within an organisation
B. is a letter which prescribes the condition of services for workers
C. has the same features of a formal letter
D. offers a column for the recipient's signature

A curriculum vitae must have all the following except ..
A. recipient's address
B. an e-mail and website
C. referees names and addresses
D. nationality

The buffer of a bad news letter ...
A. buffets the contents
B. buffers the negative contents
C. gives the reader some pleasure
D. none of the above

Wrong non-verbal cues used in an oral delivery can cause :..

A. misunderstanding
B. over loading
C. noise
D. psychological noise

42. Social noise is caused by
A. absence of title/heading
B. poor audience analysis
C. loud speaking
D. wrong conclusion/recommendations

43. An organisational chart is a .....
A. a pictorial representation of diagrams
B. a pictorial representation of offices
C. a representation of officials
D. a pictorial representation of the offices or officials from the highest ranking to the lowest

44. Grapewine communication could be all but
A. confidential report
B. rumour
C. official gossip
D. information without a known sender or receiver

45. In what three ways is communication helpful to us?
A. It is continuous, dynamic, and gives social growth
B. It is transactional, adaptive and helps in cooperative action
C. It helps in personal growth, social growth and cooperative action
D. It systematic, intrapersonal in nature and gives feedback

46. The most effective model of communication is
A. the transactional mode
B. the stimulus response model
C. the sender receiver model
D. the linear model

47. The major components of communication include all the following but ....
A. channel
B. feedback
C. noise
D. static

48. In communication, non linguistic stimuli may include all the following but .....
A. sounds
B. light
C. songs
D. heat

49. Mental response to external or internal stimuli and the internal processing of information is
A. self communication
B. intrapersonal communication
C. interpersonal communication
D. perception

50. Interpersonal communication can be
A. dyadic or small group
B. interpretation and reception of stimuli
C. reaction to internal stimulus
D. sending messages to the public

The physiological limitations to the reception of stimuli refers to all but
A. touching
B. smelling
C. hearing
D. feeling

2. Optical illusions and in rate limitations and saliences are examples of ..... under perception
A. psychological and emotional limitations
B. physiological limitations
C. filtering and completing
D. biological limitation

Filtering and completing, selective perception, experience and emotional states are under .... limitations
A. psychological
B. medical
C. natural
D. physiological

5. Self concept can be defined as ....., ... and ..... perceptions of ourselves that we have derived from out experiences and interaction with others, except
A. physical
B. physiological
C. psychological
D. social

58. Within self concept, one picks up experiences and interactions from all the following but.....
A. significant
B. reference groups
C. role groups
D. role playing

5. In terms of how self affects communication which is the odd one?
A. Self-fulfilling prophecy
B. Selection of messages sent, received and processed
C. Attitude towards communication situations
D. Accepting praise without embarrassment

PEARL ASSIGNMENT

The characteristics of negative self conception include all the following but ..
A. feeling equal to other persons
B. over-responsiveness to praise
C. hypercritical attitude
D. sensitivity to criticism

58. To improve self concept one must
A. drop all false masks
B. have a pessimistic view towards competition
C. have a feeling that "nobody likes me"
D. not look into the eyes of the audience.

59. Response/Feedback can be
A. intended or unintended
B. inductive
C. deductive
D. on a minor premise

60. Communication involves these three main components. They are ...
A. source, channel and the receiver
B. message, destination and channel
C. message, sender and feedback
D. message, source and the receiver

61. What element in the communication process is a way of evaluating communication?
A. channel
B. destination
C. response
D. letting information

62. Which type of communication can be termed as "processing of information?
A. Interpersonal
B. Intrapersonal
C. Public communication
D. Verbal communication

63. Which factor causes the grapevine to thrive in an organisation?
A. gossip
B. hearsay
C. failure to communicate
D. false alarm

64. Reports and questions on implementation of decisions taken can be captured under ... on the agenda
A. AOB
B. Business of the day
C. Matters arising
D. Minutes of the last meeting

65. Which part of the report captures its scope and purpose?
A. recommendations
B. findings
C. procedure
D. terms of reference

66. A notice of meetings can be sent in the form of a
A. report and memorandum
B. letter and reports
C. reports and minutes
D. letters and memoranda

67. Speeches or presentations may vary widely according to
A. the recommendation
B. the size and composition of the audience
C. the instructions of the audience
D. the value

8. The major purpose of a curriculum vitae is to
A. exhibit one's scholarship
B. market one's suitability for a job
C. show all that one has done
D. to manipulate the would-be employer

The main difference between the report and a proposal is that
A. proposals are longer than reports
B. reports are less formal
C. proposals are solicited
D. proposals are action-oriented.

7 Participants gave Professor Kwao a standing ovation after his lecture., Which of the following account for this action?
i. The speaker did a thorough audience analysis
ii. Most listeners were very close to the speaker
iii. Professor Kwao has always been a good lecturer and orator
iv. There was use of the state-of-art equipment and venue.

A. i, ii, and iii
B. ii,iii, and iv
C. ii and iii
D. i and iv

Identify which alternative is the best determiner for preparing effective documents?
A. A good handwriting
B. An attentive audience
C. Adequate statement of purpose
D. Encouragement through feedback

GOODLET

You will perform better at a job interview if

A. you know the policies and objectives of the organisation
B. your dressing on the day is extra-ordinary
C. you are ready to answer all the questions to be asked
D. you know the venue and all the members of the interviewing panel

73. "At the interview, I spoked English very well. In fact, all answers I gives was collect. Why they I am not pass is a wonderful me:" This speaker fails most probably because

A. his grade in English is very good
B. the panel used built-in conclusions
C. he is linguistically incompetent
D. there is very little the interviewers can do for him.

74. The introduction of a report serves several functions. Which statement here is one of them?

A. It provides essential information at a glance and helps focus our thinking as we read the rest of the report
B. It fills gaps, removes doubts and corrects some of the impressions readers are likely to have
C. It summarises findings, and tells the reader about what the reporters think their significance may be
D. Suggestions are made for a course of action based on the data that the reporters have presented.

75. What is the major difference between a progress report and an activity report?

A. A progress report communicates information on a test or investigation but an activity report focuses on work done
B. while a vendor submits a progress report to a client company, an employee submits an activity report to a superior
C. A progress report is a formal business letter but an activity report is written as a memorandum
D. Activity report is used to give information on accidents, equipment failure or work stoppage while progress reports provide permanent records.

76. We often end a formal or business letter as follows.....

A. greetings, ending, signature
B. subscription, compliment, designation
C. complimentary close, signature, name
D. identification, signing off, C.C.

77. After the interview, Serwaah is the only applicant chosen for the post. Which of the following statements accounts for her success?

A. She writes to remind each panel members to select her
B. She was apt and well dressed
C. She writes to thank the chairman of the panel of interviews
D. Serwaah is well connected politically and socially

78. In writing proposals, it is NOT necessary to do one of the following. Point this out.

A. Feasibility studies.
B. Environmental impact assessment
C. Loan repayment schedule
D. Comprehensive cost analysis

79. A good report must be written in ..... language
A. denotative
B. connotative
C. derivative
D. symbolic

80. Which of the following is a good report?
A. The angels in heaven praise the Lord
B. The referee helped Ghana to win gold.
C. Forty Engineering students qualified for the next round
D. Only blind women will fall for that lousy man.

One very important role of reports is to .....
A. help us voice out our burdens
B. make people improve their communication skills
C. enable the reader to take informed decisions
D. help us determine what others think of us.

Mr. Neku always succeeds in writing proposals that are approved of. Which of the following is a vital part of his proposals? He always includes .....
A. the sustainability of the proposal
B. personal benefits
C. miscellaneous expenses
D. the names of important persons

Good reading skills require all of the following but
A. correct non-verbal cues
B. scanning
C. skimming
D. close reading

At a good interview the candidate could observe all the following except
A. laugh loudly
B. listen intently
C. sit upright
D. send all relevant documents

85. At a telephone conversation
A. it is good to repeat important details
B. it is unnecessary to repeat details
C. it is wise to keep your identity
D. it is best to shout for the person to hear

86. Minutes are useful for the following reasons except ...
A. keeping records
B. for law-court suits
C. for referencing
D. writing memos

For CASSAT 2009

Which of the following do you consider the best format for a bad news message

A.	i.	bad new	ii.	Buffer	iii. Reasons	iv.	Friendly e
B.	i.	buffer	ii.	Reasons	iii. Bad news	iv.	Friendly e
C.	i.	bad news	ii.	Buffer	iii. Reasons	iv.	Friendly e
D.	i.	buffer	ii	bad news	iii. Reasons	iv.	Friendly e

88. Which of the following do you consider the best format/structure for a favourable respo e f a claim?

A	i. Good news	ii. Middle information which blames a worker	iii. Courteous en
B.	i. middle information which blames a worker	iii. God news	iii. Courteous en
C.	i. Good news	ii. Middle information which avoids blaming	iii. Courteous en
D.	i. Middle information which avoids blaming	ii. Good news	iii. Courteous en

89. Prof. Owusu realised that his audience could not grasp the main thrust of his speech. This is most likely due to

A. his failure to do a thorough demographic analysis
B. the audience being prepared to pull his legs
C. his enemies revealing his shortcomings to the people
D. the fact that most of the people were hungry.

90. Why is the statement, "I told you the wonder club would win, and true to my prediction th y did" not a good report?

A. it is written in the first person narrative
B. it contains built-in conclusions
C. the writer seems to know too much in advance.
D. only the writer's friend heard what he said

91. Why is the Chairman at a meeting not allowed to argue with anyone?

A. this is to maintain discipline
B. the Chairman is the most important person around
C. members are supposed to show their respect
D. the Chairman always has the last say.

92. The Dean of your faculty came directly to your classroom to make an announcement. What type of communication flow does his action reflect?

A. vertical
B. lateral
C. diagonal
D. horizontal

93. Which of the following should precede a formal speech?

A. rehearsal
B. orientation
C. adoption
D. briefing

94. When meetings are held regularly in an organisation,

A. members can take informed decisions
B. senior staff can discover absentees
C. authority is able to present awards
D. employers feel their superiority over the employees.

Pick the odd one out:
A. narrative minutes
B. action minutes
C. resolution minutes
D. descriptive minutes

Speakers at a public gathering should master courage in order to overcome what is of encountered as -----
A. maladjustment
B. inferiority complex
C. stage fright
D. high tension

A set of activities a reader performs in order to assess the relevance and reliability of the material hand is referred to as
A. skimming
B. previewing
C. rehearsal
D. focusing

Which of the following statements is NOT TRUE about communication?
It is
A. geared towards the achievement of specific goals
B. human and intentional in nature
C. involves encoding and decoding of message
D. always verbal in transmission.

The main difference between listening and hearing is that the ....
A. former is a conscious act while the latter is not.
B. latter is a conscious act while the former is not
C. former involves the use of auditing aids
D. latter always involves a source and a destination

In a formal letter there is
A. a lot of deference and distance between the writer and the recipient
B. the use of jargons and contracted forms of verbs
C. familiarity expressed between the writer and the recipient
D. the mandatory use of pleasantries

P.E. [illegible]FIGAH
K.O.G[illegible]RMAH
PATR[illegible]ALDOO
PHIL[illegible]MENA ABAKA
[illegible] AM[illegible]AH-DARTEH
[illegible]ENI[illegible]TTA ERISON
[illegible]ENI[illegible]OSSEI
[illegible]P. K[illegible]TTIBRO
[illegible]UIN[illegible]ING
[illegible]Y. A[illegible]AKLI

KWAME NKRUMAH UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY, KUMASI
COLLEGE OF ART AND SOCIAL SCIENCES
FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Second Semester Examinations, 2011

ENGL 158: COMMUNICATION SKILLS

MAY, 2011 TWO HOURS

CANDIDATE'S DEPARTMENT ---- ISAHA

INDEX NUMBER -----

CANDIDATES MUST NOT TAKE THIS PAPER OUTSIDE THE EXAMINATION HALL.

NOTE WELL:

1: Answer Section A in the answer booklet provided.
2. Questions 1-100 in Section B should be answered on the scannable sheet provided.
3. Under no circumstance should a question paper be taken away from Examination Hall

SECTION A

Answer ONE question from this section.
Write your answer in the answer booklet provided

Q1. With a concise Memo of transmittal, write an investigative report on a theft case that took pl[illegible] in your department. The report should be written for the Vice-Chancellor of KNUST.

Q2. (a) Clearly distinguish between the following pairs of documents.
(i) Solicited and unsolicited proposals
(ii) External and internal proposals
(iii) Invitation for Bid and Request or Application for Proposals.

(b) Write out CONCISELY the following
(i) The Cover or Title Page of a Proposal on the need for improvement in the [illegible]vice delivery aspect of your department for the Chief Executive Officer.
(ii) Consequence(s) of the proposed action.

Q3. (a) A reputable organisation had placed an advert in one of the national dailies for a HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGER. With a carefully prepared resumè, write to apply for the job.

OR

(b) You have noticed that many organisations, including the West African Examinations Cou[illegible] continue to use some archaic forms in the formal letter format. Write to the Chief Exam[illegible]er of English pointing out the archaic forms and suggest a modern format to improve the situa[illegible]n.

Page coverw328 -11

As the Secretary of a corporate body, write to invite members of the Executive Committee to an emergency meeting. Assuming the said meeting has taken place, write RESOLUTION MINUTES to record the proceedings.

You live in the crowded section of a typical Third World city. Write to discuss any five barriers to effective communication that you are likely to meet, and how these affect your life.

SECTION B

Answer all Questions in this section on the scannable sheet provided

Minutes may take the following forms except
A. narrative
B. resolution
C. action
D. descriptive

The major purpose of a curriculum vitae is to
A. manipulate the would-be employer
B. exhibit one's scholarship
C. show all that one has done
D. market an applicant's suitability for a job

Which of the following statements is TRUE about the grapevine form of communication.
A. it is official gossip
B. it is communication within a person
C. it is a conscious spread of non-verbal cues
D. it has no actual sender nor receiver

Which of the following factors account for social noise?
A. cultural, religious and political background
B. cultural, religious and geographical location
C. population, education and governance
D. education, bad handwriting and governance

To brush over a text is known as
A. glossing
B. skimming
C. scanning
D. surveying

Intra-personal communication
A. involves an exchange between two parties
B. takes place within an individual
C. it is an unorthodox approach to get a feedback
D. takes place after giving a feedback

During meetings under which of the following titles would you expect reports by committees and sub-committees and briefings by delegations who were assigned duties previously?

A. Chairman's opening remarks
B. Matters Arising out of Minutes
C. Main Business of the Day
D. Any other business

8. Communication becomes effective only when
A. a positive feedback is given
B. an appropriate feedback is given
C. interlocutors' voices are audible
D. the intention to communicate is nursed

9. One way of improving upward communication in an organisation is by
A. leading exemplary life
B. providing "Suggestion Boxes .
C. organising games among subordinates
D. offering scholarship to workers' wards

10. Which of the following situations does not require a formal letter?
A. application for employment
B. invitation to a meeting
C. a petition to family members
D. a request for a leave of absence

11. All the following are the purposes of holding meetings except one
A. to take decisions
B. to relay information or instructions
C. to initiate participatory problem solving
D. to attend to individual needs of workers.

12. A message achieves "congeniality" when it
A. is in tune with our expectation
B. builds hope in recipients
C. observes confidentiality
D. is relayed in a serene atmosphere

13. Which of these tasks does a secretary NOT perform in his club?
A. convene meetings
B. writing annual reports
C. presiding over meetings
D. prepares accounts.

14. Why would a speaker give a preview of the main points of his speech in his introduction?
A. to establish the right to speak
B. to stimulate the interest of the audience
C. to display his scholarship
D. to secure the prompt response of the audience.

15. Identify the most authoritative communication channel from among the following.
A. Downward channel
B. Upward channel
C. Horizontal channel
D. The grapevine

16. The difference between listening and hearing is that the former
A. involves a conscious effort
B. requires a positive feedback
C. depends on productive skills
D. needs occasional prompting

17. At which stage(s) does message distortion largely occur?
A. nursing the intention
B. encoding and decoding
C. interpretation of the message
D. nursing the intention and encoding

18. Which of the following complementary closes is conventionally paired with the salutation, "Dear Sir,"
A. Yours truly
B. Yours' faithfully
C. Yours faithfully
D. Your's faithfully

19. Feedback in the communication process does all the following except that
A. it enables the source to know why the message was received
B. it enables the sender to ascertain if the receiver understood the message
C. it enables the source to know the next line of action to take
D. it allows the sender to know if the message got to its destination

20. Ethnocentrism is an example of
A. technical noise
B. psychological noise
C. physical noise
D. social noise

21. The casting vote can only be used at a meeting when
    A. there is an issue to be voted on
    B. there is a tie in the voting process
    C. someone is absent and another person has to vote for him
    D. members have to vote two times on the same issue.

22. Which of the following parts feature in the long special report but does not reflect in the short formal report?
    A. terms of reference, findings, bibliography, appendix
    B. title fly, title page, letter of transmittal, letter of authority
    C. title fly, letter of submission, bibliography, appendix
    D. title page, title fly, conclusion, bibliography

23. The relevance of methodology, bibliography, and appendix in the long special report is
    A. to make the report formal
    B. to lend credibility to the methodology used
    C. to lend credibility to the findings made in the report
    D. to distinguish the long report from the short formal report

24. Which of the following is not true about the grapevine form of communication?
    A. It can be eradicated as a form of communication
    B. Its source cannot be determined
    C. It contains half truths
    D. It spreads information in all direction

25. Which of the following features in letters but does not reflect in memos?
    A. signature
    B. name of the sender of the letter
    C. reference number
    D. subscription

26. Which of the following forms of minutes are most suitable for court proceedings?
    A. narrative minutes
    B. action minutes
    C. verbatim minutes
    D. resolution minutes

27 An agenda can best be described as a list of
    A. issues to be transacted at a meeting
    B. items, in order of preference, to be followed at a meeting
    C. issues, in order of preference, to be discussed at a meeting
    D. items to be discussed at a meeting

28. The relevance of the job selection interview covers all the following except that it
A. enables the interviewer to select the best qualified applicant
B. enables the employer to assess the intelligence of the interviewer
C. gives the employer the opportunity to confirm his impressions about the applicant.
D. enables the interviewer to assess the intelligence of the interviewee.

29. The title of the minutes normally contains
A. the name of the organisation, the day and date of meeting, the venue and time of the meeting
B. the title minutes, name of the organisation, the date, venue, and the time of the meeting
C. The title minutes, the name of the organisation, the type of meeting, the day and date of the meeting, the venue and time of the meeting
D. the name of the organisation, the type of meeting, the date of the meeting, the venue and time of the meeting.

30. The signature of authentication of a memo is written
A. at the end of the memo
B. beside the name of the recipient
C. after the name of the writer
D. anywhere the writer deems convenient

31. Pick the odd one out of the following
A. impersonal communication
B. intrapersonal communication
C. Introspective communication
D. Interpersonal communication

32. When we go to class for lectures what type of listening do we do most?
A. Appreciative listening
B. Empathic listening
C. Informational listening
D. Evaluative listening

33. Which of the following is true about listening?
A. we need to train ourselves to listen well
B. listening and hearing are the same
C. listening is primarily a passive activity
D. listening means agreement and obedience

34. 'Look me in the face and tell me again that you are coming from a board meeting at this hour'. This statement is likely to come from a(n)
A. adult
B. daughter
C. superior
D. associate

35. The main objective of a confrontational interview is to
A. Select the best person for a job
B. Embarrass the interviewee
C. Show how a person reacts under pressure
D. Help screen candidates when they are too many

36. Handouts have the following disadvantages except
A. it helps the audience to be inattentive
B. people may even absent themselves
C. it eliminates the need for note taking
D. it serves as a permanent reference

37. All the following refer to the arrangement of power structures in an organisation except
A. hierarchy of authority
B. Lines of authority
C. Chain of command
D. participatory structures

38. The letter that accompanies a report is known as
A. terms of reference
B. letter of transmittal
C. hierarchy of authority
D. memorandum of understanding

39. Which is the first step in the communication process?
A. the impulse to communicate
B. encoding the message
C. transmitting the message
D. planning the message

40. This type of communication in an organisation when the middle man is by-passed is called
A. horizontal communication
B. vertical communication
C. diagonal communication
D. downward communication

41. One of the most critical illiteracies of the 21st century is
A. media literacy
B. information literacy
C. technological literacy
D. functional literacy

42. One disadvantage of non-verbal communication is.
   A. its diagonal nature
   B. the humour it creates
   C. its potential ambiguity
   D. its comic and interesting nature

43. The following are all problems of reading except
   A. lack of comprehension
   B. the death of the reading culture
   C. ineffective reading instruction
   D. sentence reversals in reading

44. Minutes which record in detail the proceedings at a meeting is
   A. narrative minutes
   B. action minutes
   C. resolution minutes
   D. A combination of C and B

45. The basic skill of communication most used in life is
   A. Reading
   B. Listening
   C. Writing
   D. Speaking

46. Most advertisements appeal to our
   A. senses
   B. emotions
   C. reason
   D. sentiments

47. One of the greatest barriers to listening is
   A. Our short attention span
   B. The disturbance of friends
   C. message overload
   D. mental distractions

48. When we break a job to be undertaken into small parts, what we have done is known as
   A. specialisation
   B. division of labour
   C. hierarchy of authority
   D. division of function

9. If a reader wants an idea as to the contents of an article he does so through
   A. browsing
   B. editing
   C. scanning
   D. skimming

10. Conversations, letters, speeches, manuals are avenues through which
   A. needs are expressed
   B. marketing companies reach out to customers
   C. the entrepreneur ensures that his staff is well motivated.
   D. appraisals are given to subordinates

11. Konkontiba met Odehyee his friend at pool party. He waved at Odehyee and moved on to have a drink. Konkontiba's non-verbal communication is meant to
   A. ignore Odehyee
   B. acknowledge the presence of Odehyee
   C. Spite Odehyee
   D. to forestall a rather long chat with Odehyee

12. Identify the option which best illustrates credibility.
   A. The Headmaster of Oguaa Senior High School has announced that members of staff who do not have their Masters Degree would be forced to proceed on voluntary retirement.
   B. the security officer has instructed all students to contribute money towards the purchase of security dogs
   C. The Head Potter has instructed all students to lock their doors before leaving for lectures.
   D. The Managing Director's wife instructed all workers to eat at her canteen.

13. In order to ensure that his wife's canteen is patronised by students, the headmaster instructed all food vendors at the school to sell only sachet water and biscuits. This situation illustrates ...
   A. congeniality
   B. Perceived authority
   C. perceived intention
   D. perceived congeniality

14. The lizard that fell from the high iroko tree praised itself for surviving that height. The lizard here is practising
   A. interpersonal communication
   B. ultra personal communication
   C. intrapersonal communication
   D. Impersonal communication

55. Another name for impersonal communication is .....
A. mass communication
B. one-on-one communication
C. objective communication
D. large audience communication

56. What interpretation would you give to the behaviour of a listener who narrows his eyes as he listens to a story from a friend?
A. mistrust
B. admiration
C. amazed
D. surprised

57. Which one of these is not a pointer to personal problems which can pollute the atmosphere of work?
A. a worker who comes to work drunk and unkempt.
B. a stickler of time who starts playing truant
C. an efficient messenger who demands money from clients.
D. a secretary who puts on gloves and eyelashes to work

58. A potent index to one's personality is realised through his/her ...
A. brisk proven acts
B. attitude to work
C. grooming and dress code
D. curriculum vitae

59. Communication occurs when
A. the sender and the receiver have shared meaning of the message
B. when the receiver gives feedback to the sender
C. when the sender uses the right channel of communication
D. when the message is congenial to the receiver

60. As Professor Tenteh lectured, a black bird flew into the class, perched on his head and chirped for three minutes before flying away. This constitutes ..... in communication
A. superstitious noise
B. technical noise
C. psychological noise
D. physical noise

61. Which one of these is a good personal attribute of an office worker?
A. preparedness to work beyond the official working hours
B. exercising for thirty minutes after close of work
C. socialising with friends after work
D. initiating the lifestyle of the C.E.O.

62. It is imperative for a good leader to
A. exude confidence
B. be a problem solver
C. have a vision and a mission
D. to be self-serving and upright

63. Mr. Akoto is the General Manager of Kaiser Goldfields Limited. He is humble and honest. What makes him exhibit these qualities?
A. He wants people to respect his views
B. All great leaders are humble
C. To enable his subordinates to approach him without fear
D. the mere thought of the possibility of failing his subordinates is humbling

64. The GEO of Nsorhwe Safety Wears and Boots Company, Kumasi has employed fifty workers for his company. How can he ensure the rational co-ordination of the activities of the workers in order to achieve the goals for which Nsorhwe Safety Wear and Boots Company was established?
A. through the division of labour and function as well as through a hierarchy of authority
B. through assigning functions to qualified personnel.
C. By delegating authority to experienced members of staff and monitoring their activities
D. By organising in-service training for staff.

65. The Administrator of Jack and Jill School was directed by his boss to find out why enrolment has dwindled and submit a survey report. We have here an example of ....
A. Downward communication
B. Upward communication
C. Vertical communication
D. Horizontal communication

66. Which one of these is not essential on a notice of a General Meeting?
A. Address of organisation holding the meeting
B. A.O.B.
C. Agenda of meeting
D. Signature of Chairman.

67. Mr. Ntiamoah, the CEO of Ntiamoah and Ntiamoah Company has introduced suggestion boxes into the company, so that staff can submit suggestions. This desire is to .....
A. encourage the harnessed use of diagonal communication
B. improve horizontal communication
C. improve upward communication
D. improve downward communication

One of the characteristics of an official document is that .....

A. it is written by professionals
B. it is bereft of personal references
C. It is read only by Company Secretaries
D. It is written in response to an earlier communication

All these are ways in which self-concept affect communication except in terms of

A. self-fulfilling prophecy
B. the selection of messages
C. attitudes towards communication situations
D. social and psychological history

0. Pick the odd one out

A. feeling equal to other persons
B. over-responsiveness to praise
C. sensitivity to criticism
D. hypercritical attitudes

1. People are assessed not only for the subject they speak on, or what facts they have but also for how the mass of information has been

A. illustrated
B. selected
C. organised
D. analysed

72. Another name for the initiator of a communication process is

A. source
B. receiver
C. public speaker
D. commentator

73. The element of communication called 'the channel' is made up of

A. packaging and transmission of information
B. giving and receiving information
C. listening and talking of information
D. observing and analysing information

74. In communication you must show all the following but

A. adequate knowledge of the subject
B. observe interpersonal expectations
C. conform to rules of language
D. be prepared to assess the initiator

75. Under chronemic non-verbal communication is
A. relation with appointed time
B. eye contact between people
C. friendly and a warm touch
D. Facial expression

76. Types of interviews include ..... interviews
A. probing
B. leading
C. employment
D. mirror

77. The stages of effectives listening are; hearing, choosing what to hear, concentrating, understanding, feedback and .....
A. recall
B. education
C. differentiation
D. referral

78. Intensive listening is associated with .....
A. knowledge
B. instructions
C. conversation
D. information

79. Pick the odd one out
A. Gives access to information
B. Enables us to crosscheck information
C. Helps us to do revision
D. helps us think aloud

80. Class reading refers to the ..... and ..... paying of attention to .....
A. active, enjoyable, reading
B. skimming, scanning, books
C. thorough, detailed, text
D. locating, familiarisation, books

81. Some reading faults result from
A. reading under psychological stress
B. memorisation of vocabulary
C. Retention of read passages
D. Enhancement of left to right eye movement

Formality is the nature of relationship between people and also one's attitude to the conduct of things around one. Therefore the levels of formality are

A. colloquial
B. familiar
C. informed
D. formal

A feature of the formal level of communication is

A. strict grammar
B. picture square imagery
C. emotional attachment
D. profuse use of adjectives adverbs

In order to communicate effectively in the written mode one must do all the following but

A. prepare well
B. outline one's message carefully
C. think personally
D. practise one's speech.

One way to improve self concept is to

A. invent theories about one
B. drop all false masks
C. be with people
D. create room for gossip.

The V.C. has been asked to recommend a group of students for a scholarship. Which of the following is NOT one of things he will include?

A. The duration of the course
B. How much money is involved
C. What courses the students will study
D. The beauty of the university campus

Which of the under-listed is recommended as the language of a report?

A. Connotative
B. Denotative
C. Emotive
D. Informal

In writing a formal letter, we have to be careful with the format. Identify the most modern of the structures below.

A. Indentation
B. Full block
C. Semi-block
D. Quarter block

89. A student provided 'culture' as a barrier to effective communication and was marked wrong. Which of the following is the most appropriate reason for his error?

A. Culture is not a barrier
B. The question is clearly not stated
C. The examiner did not follow the marking scheme
D. Culture is only an aspect of noise.

90. Which one of the statements below is true of human communication? Point it out.

A. Women are more communicative
B. You cannot not communicate
C. Colour does not distort messages
D. Space is an aspect of verbal communication.

91. It is necessary to think critically and seriously before a statement is made. This is mostly because .....

A. you cannot unmake yourself
B. one cannot apologise enough
C. even if you are forgiven, it doesn't help
D. communication is irreversible

92. "There is going to be an outpouring of the spirit today" is NOT a report because.

A. no one can see the spirit
B. it does not deal with the real world
C. we cannot report on spiritual things
D. only spiritual men can deal with spiritual matters.

93. Why will you advise a friend to wear decent clothes?

A. They can become offensive
B. Clothes communicate without words
C. The world today frowns on indecency
D. It matters much among the youth

94. During a meeting, participants noticed that the Secretary was simply looking on instead of writing. What could have accounted for his attitude?

A. He might be physically exhausted
B. The topic under discussion might be boring
C. He must have been writing resolution minutes
D. The Secretary probably lost track of proceeding.

95. We normally do not include ..... in the minutes of an emergency meeting.

A. other matters
B. matters arising
C. opening prayer
D. attendance list

9. Mrs. Ossei received a standing ovation after her presentation. It was because .....
   A. she knew how to preach very well.
   B. many of those in the audience were her communication skills students.
   C. she did a thorough demographic analysis to know the aspiration of the people.
   D. being a lecturer of communication skills, she knew how to capture the hearts of the people.

"When I mets the panel, I did spoke collect English but they says I do not qualified"
Which of the reasons below is the most likely reason for the disqualification?
   A. The panel decided to disqualify him
   B. Only those who did spoke English passed
   C. This candidate is linguistically incompetent
   D. The candidate's mother tongue had been a great obstacle

Why is spoken language not part of non-verbal communication?
   A. It involves no symbols
   B. Non-verbal communication does not use signals
   C. There is use of words
   D. Non-verbal communication is culture specific

A good report need not .....
   A. necessarily be true
   B. come from the reporter
   C. contain political terms
   D. come from a minister of religion

10. Point out the ODD item in the following
   A. environmental impact assessment
   B. feasibility studies
   C. progress report
   D. communication barrier.

XAMINERS

O.O. ARMAH
P. ADOLINAMA
E. KOFIGAH
ENRIETTA EYISON
ENIA OSSEI
ATRICIA AIDOO
Y. AKPAKLI
. / VUAH-DARTEH
OHN ANING

72. Giving a recipient more than what he can digest in the available time is referred to as
   a. Congestion
   b. Distortion
   c. Over-loading
   d. Interference

73. All the mediums listed below improve upward communication EXCEPT
   a. The use of the 'Suggestion Box'
   b. Holding regular meetings
   c. Keeping an open door policy
   d. Conducting regular roll calls

74. If you are inviting someone to come and deliver a talk, you need to tell him the following EXCEPT ONE
   a. The topic to be treated
   b. The date, time and place
   c. The duration
   d. What to say

75. One of the following is NOT TRUE about meetings:
   a. they can be formal or informal
   b. they can be executive or general
   c. they may be a platform for decision-taking
   d. the date, time, venue and agenda are not crucial.

76. All the following are TRUE about minutes EXCEPT ONE
   a. The tense is generally the simple past
   b. The reported speech is used instead of direct speech
   c. It is reported live as in commentary
   d. The passive voice is frequently used.

79. All the following BUT ONE are the features of the official report
   a. a title or head
   b. an introduction/terms of reference
   c. procedure or methodology
   d. a complimentary close